Dr. Randy Ross

"For a large part of my career, I have been focused on doing and producing rather than leading.

For me, the program's focus on building successful teams and developing others has been tremendously helpful,"

— David Hedges, AuburnBank

Presented by the Alabama Bankers Association

LEARN TO LEAD NOT MANAGE

Our purpose: build the industry's future leaders.

The purpose of the B2L Bank Executive Leadership Certification Program is to develop the Alabama banking industry's next generation of promising leaders.

The 18-month program is designed for highly motivated mid- to senior-level banking professionals.

This program will equip promising executives with the ability to handle the challenges associated with moving into new and more complex leadership roles.

The curriculum will enable participants to learn how to:

- build effective teams,
- · communicate with persuasion,
- manage conflict,
- · identify and develop top talent,
- lead under pressure, and champion change.

A further purpose: build the association's future leaders.

It is the association's desire that graduates of the program build a network of leaders that remains committed, loyal and actively involved in matters that affect the association and our ability to help our member banks to serve the financial needs of the communities in which we live and serve.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

The curriculum is designed to increase your competency in a variety of core business skills while simultaneously developing your ability to lead and develop others. Upon graduating you will return to your organization able to:

- Think strategically
- Recognize strong leadership qualities in yourself and others, as well as increasing your awareness of your own blind spots
- Communicate persuasively in public, among peers, in meetings and in the boardroom
- Deliver and receive feedback
- Solve complex problems effectively amidst rapidly changing, complex business environments
- Manage internal and external politics, create buy-in, resolve conflict, and build relationships that achieve both professional and personal goals
- Build effective teams that create and achieve alignment between senior management and the front-line
- Lead through and effectively manage conflict
- Identify and develop top talent
- Align multiple life roles that improve time management, reduce stress and decrease burn-out

PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS WILL RECEIVE:

1. A comprehensive pre-program assessment of your:

- Leadership skills using the Leadership Challenge Practices Inventory 360-degree Assessment®
- Behaviors and preferences identified by the Myers Briggs Type Indicator Test®
- Conflict resolution styles measured by the Thomas-Kilmann Conflict Mode Instrument Test™
- Behavioral traits determined through the DiSC Behavior Assessment®

2. A detailed plan for growth that includes:

- Charting a course for where you want to be by developing your Personal Leadership Skills 12-month Improvement Plan
- Learning how to check your progress through a follow-up assessment after the program that gathers feedback from mentors, peers and subordinates
- Determining what support you will need to be successful

3. All handouts and tool kits for personal use

- 4. Experiential learning activities and hands-on class work that combines peer- to-peer learning groups and feedback sessions
- 5. Exclusive access to a world-class faculty
- 6. The opportunity to build a network and learn with the state's most promising new leaders

Triad has developed a framework and approach for engaging in Difficult Conversations ™ more effectively.

DR. RANDY ROSS is a bestselling author, CEO of Remarkable, and Former Chief People Officer. Most importantly, he's a messenger of practical wisdom and needed hope to help untangle the biggest challenges facing today's business leader, tomorrow's workforce, and the future marketplace. In 2008, Randy founded Remarkable! - a consulting and advisory firm specializing in team development and organizational health. Spending time in both the for-profit and not-for-profit worlds, Randy has traveled throughout the United States and internationally as a speaker, consultant, and coach, building teams and developing leaders. A compelling communicator, Randy has the keen sensitivity to speak to the heart of leaders and inspires elevated performance among teams.

BRIAN JONES has more than 15 years of experience helping organizations achieve real results in the areas of organizational health and leadership development. Brian is a resource to business leaders everywhere in their pursuit of organizational health as a facilitator, coach, advisor, writer, and speaker. More than 15,000 executives have participated in Brian's offsites and workshops worldwide. Currently, Brian works regularly with CEOs and executive teams in quickly and effectively applying the concepts captured in all of Pat Lencioni's books. His clients span a broad spectrum of various industries, including technology, manufacturing, and health care.

Regarded by many as the authority on leadership and change, John P. Kotter is a best-selling author, award winning business and management thought leader, business entrepreneur and Harvard Professor. His ideas, books, and company, KOTTER INTERNATIONAL, help mobilize people around the world to better lead organizations in an era of increasingly rapid change. Kotter International's vision is as bold as it is simple: Millions leading, billions benefiting. Kotter believes that leadership must be inclusive, rather than exclusive. The "why" of leadership is most important: to have a positive and lasting impact on people and organizations. Kotter equips people to transform their organizations themselves and teach others how to do it.

DR. STEPHEN R. GRAVES is a strategist, executive coach and author. At any given time, he is working with a handful of remarkable executives leading large global organizations and young social entrepreneurs just starting out. This includes Fortune 100 public companies, all-sized family businesses, and world-changing Not-for-Profits. He is honored to be the go-to-guide for hundreds of CEOs across the globe over the last three decades. Steve has authored more than a dozen books aimed at teaching people how to flourish in their life and work, and he publishes a weekly article read by more than 10,000 leaders around the world. One of his most memorable projects was the launch and scale of the Life@Work Magazine, an award winning and trend-setting publication.
