How have recent call report changes affected the reporting of sweep and brokered deposits, loan-related items, and regulatory capital? Which schedules of the Call Report are receiving heightened regulatory focus? And where are we still seeing errors in recently filed Call Reports?

Get the answer to these questions and many more at the ABA's 2022 Call Report Seminar. This seminar is designed to explain the why's, how's and where's of Call Report preparation.

This course is perfect for both the beginner and the experienced Call Report preparer. The instructors pace the class based upon the experience level of the attendees. Participants will receive a detailed line-by-line review in the completion of significant schedules of a Call Report and will be encouraged to share their call-reporting experiences. Appropriate items to be reported and relationships between schedules will be discussed as part of this review.

This one-day seminar will be presented by Mauldin & Jenkins, LLC professionals and will offer practical techniques to improve your overall reporting process.

Seminar topics include:

- Why banks prepare Call Reports;
- Review of 2022 Call Report changes and any proposed changes for 2023
- Report of Condition (RC) and supporting schedules;
- Report of Income (RI) and supporting schedules;
- Emphasis on Schedules RC-C and RC-R;
- Tips for improving both speed and accuracy in the Call Report process;
- Common mistakes and issues in call reporting.

Each schedule will be discussed generally and significant line items will be discussed in detail. Some topics such as loans, investments and regulatory capital will be discussed in depth as they receive significant regulatory attention.

Schedules RC-S (Securitization), RC-T (Trust) and RC-V (VIEs) are not covered.

PRESENTED For ABA by: Mauldin & Jenkins: Bill Curtis, Nicole Cunningham, Michael Gordon
